Waterfront Cafe Beer Garden Performance Schedule

North East of Windward Circle

What would any beer garden be without cabaret acts? Our's serves up a group of performers, some of them Carnevale! regulars and others appearing with us for the first time, who are as talented as they are musically diverse. So between glasses of Erdinger and Bitburger, our featured imported beers, check out these great performers.

1:00 pm Beer & Wine Garden Opens

2:00-2:45 pm Peter Demian & Gregory Cruz/"Street Smart" - The duo meld guitar and compelling vocals for a perfectly balanced mix of folk rock, R&B and soul.

3:00-3:45 pm Joy Rippel - She's known as the "Venetian Bluesmama" and, after hearing her soulful vocals and bluesy Dobro and slide guitar, you'll know why!

4:00-4:45 pm Kathy Leonardo - Singer, guitarist and local club favorite Kathy Leonardo once again brings her jammin' New York rock and blues style to Carnevale!

5:00-5:45 pm Leon Rubenhold - The bluesy, gritty, soulful singer, songwriter and guitarist has performed with everyone from John Lee Hooker to Gladys Knight.

6:00-6:45 pm Bobby Manila - Talented singer, song writer and guitarist, Bobby Manila, never fails to impress with his melodic, Latin influenced guitar and vocals.

7:00-7:45 pm Spring - Striking in her blonde dreads, she serves up powerful stylish vocals and has a gift for catchy melodies and warm, supple guitar grooves.

8:00-8:45 pm The Backboners - Like the 1960's Mamas and The Papas, the group melds powerful, cohesive vocals, feel-good rhythms and clever, insightful lyrics.

9:00 pm Beer & Wine Garden Closes

And, even after Carnevale! Venice Beach 2006 ends don't forget to patronize our beer garden sponsor the Waterfront Cafe located at 205 Ocean Front Walk right on the Venice boardwalk.

Entertainment Schedule: Something for Everyone

No matter what your musical or artistic taste, Carnevale! Venice Beach 2006 has something for everyone. This schedule will help make sure you don't miss performances by your favorite local artists or, better yet, use it to discover a few of the new hot local acts you've been missing!

Windward Main Stage: Middle of Windward Circle.

- Stage MC: The always "quiet and shy" (Yeah, right!) Carnevale! Co-producer, Bonnie Cheeseman, who'll be joined periodically by her fellow Co-producer, Miriam More, event Producer, Esquire Jauchem or any other Carnevale! Committee member who's handy.
- Throughout the Day During the various breaks, we'll feature several guest comedians including: S. Rachel Lovey, Charisse, Mark Mabray, Denise Renfrow, James Cox, Joe Sullivan, Courtney Ca, Bob Schembre, Laura Rosenberg, Victor Vega and Lucy Craig.
- Noon-12:15 pm Welcome & Announcements
- 12:15-12:30 pm Venice Drum Circle - The drum ceremony begins with a Native American Blessing by Martin Alcalá, Chair Gabrielino - Tongva Tribe followed by the furious, festive, free flowing beats of Venice's very own drum circle kicking-off Carnevale! Venice Beach 2006.
- 12:30-1:00 pm Incendio Latin Trio - In Spanish, "incendio" means "fire" and it's the perfect name for this trio, composed of band members from Incendio Latin Guitar World Fusion, whose Latin and Spanish guitar sounds are all about energy, romance and passion.
- 1:15-2:00 pm Damaged Kids - This heavy metal band has a constantly expanding rabid core of die-hard headbangers that follow them from venue to venue. After you've heard their hard and heavy punk-guitar-metal-rock 'n' roll sound, you'll understand why!
- 2:15-3:00 pm Alfred Johnson & Leon Rubenhold - Alfred, one of LA's best songsmiths pairs his funky, improvisational piano style with guitarist and gritty blues vocalist Rubenhold for a driven Southern Jazz sound featuring great lyrics that overflow with humor and wit!
- 3:15-4:15 pm The Bonedaddys - L.A.'s original and most popular world beat dance band. If you like Rock, Funk, African, R&B, Soul, Reggae, Jazz, Blues, Highlife, New Orleans Second-Line, Gospel, Hillbilly, Zydeco and all things in-between, you'll love The Bonedaddys.
- 4:30-5:15 pm AfroBeat Down - L.A.'s premier Afrobeat ensemble, will definitely have your body moving with it's driving, raw, un-cut African funk that's power packed with political, polyrhythmic consciousness that's focused on uniting people to fight oppression in all it's forms.
- 5:30-6:15 pm The Sixth Chamber - The groups unique noir-like psychedelic rock songs are marked by intoxicating melodies and hypnotic rhythms and filled with themes of psychological torment, love and hate, lust, mystery and the struggle of the underdog.
- 6:30-7:15 pm The Key Frances/Deep Eddy - The intensity of Key's Hendrixesque psychedelic guitar skills, when combined with his singing, songwriting and mercurial stage presence, will take your breathe away. It's definitely a performance that's not to be missed.
- 7:30-8:30 pm Carnevale! Costume Contest Begins - The parade of costumed contestant begins featuring fabulous costumes and equally fabulous prizes. Costume contest winners will be announced at 8:45 p.m.
- 8:30-8:45 pm Hillel - Mr. Balloon Man - Actor, mime, clown and magician, Hillel Gitter performs his famous Mr. Balloon Man act.
- 8:45-9:00 pm Carnevale! Costume Contest Concludes - Announcement of the winners and awarding of prizes.
- 9:00-9:30 pm Harissa BellydanceTroupe - Middle Eastern belly dancing troupe that's blown us away every time they've appeared at Carnevale! A word of advice, don't stand too close during the sword dancing!
- 9:30-10 pm Inferno, Inc. - A Burning Man favorite, fire-performance ensemble has been featured in everything from music videos to movies and quite simply amazes audience member from eight to 80 with pyrotechnic stunts you definitely do NOT want to try at home!
- 10:00 pm Carnevale! Ends

Grand Ave. Stage: On Grand Ave East of Windward Circle

- Stage MC: Musician, singer, songwriter and comedian, Count Smokula, dubbed "The King of Funtasy," the Count is the prophet and founder of Smokulism and the host of The Count Smokula Show, a Hollywood-based talk-variety show.
- 12:30-1:00 pm Peter Demian & Gregory Cruz/"Street Smart" - Long-time Carnevale! favorites, who've once again teamed up to showcase their unique musical style melding guitar and compelling vocals to produce a perfectly balanced mix of folk rock, R&B and soul.
- 1:15-1:45 pm Chloe Day - Fresh, seductive, folk-noire ballads have gained this singer/songwriter a following among lovers of "quirkaciously eclectic" music and, by continually redefining her sound, has emerged as one of the most provocative voices in LA's music scene.
- 2:00-2:30 pm Kokopelli - Mixing driving rock with jazz, reggae, electronic loops and full classical string arrangements, Kokopelli retains a signature violin and piano driven popular sound that is, first and foremost, musical.
- 2:45-3:15 pm Imaginary Friends - The band's song's are an eclectic mix of acoustic folk, blues, country and pop music, but have in common the cohesive elements of electric violin, backed by two strong female vocals and terrific melodies.
- 3:30-4:00 pm Funky Gloworm - Sandwich amazingly melodic guitar riffs between moving jungle style drum beats and rich guttural vocals and you have the sensual and powerful foundation for Funky Gloworm. This LA rock band's fan base grows every time they play.
- 4:15-4:45 pm John Vester - The singer songwriter, probably most famous for having written or co-written many of the pop/rock band Venice's most beloved songs, and who often performs with the band, brings that smooth, memorable Venice style to Carnevale!
- 5:00-5:30 pm Sugarbitch - This earthy, hard-driving band is made up of a unique blend of musicians and musical styles. The sound is so original they could well represents the future of improvised Rock and Soul. In a word, they're amazing!
- 5:30 pm Grand Ave. Stage Closes - Please join us back at the Windward Circle Stage or browse the Carnevale! vendors.
